

DR. S M HAIDER RIZVI :

Educational Qualifications

M.A. Psychology (A.M.U. Aligarh), M. Phil & Ph.D. in Social Psychology (J.N.U. New Delhi)

Training

Participatory Management, Research and Development; Result Based Management; Moderation Techniques; Transactional Analysis; Report Card Methodology and User Centred Designing

Work Experience

A trained Participatory Development Practitioner cum Action Researcher started career by working for the empowerment of poor and marginalised through strengthening of Local Self-Governance Institutions and Civil Society Organisations. He has worked widely on development issues of Education Agriculture Extension and Livelihoods Empowerments, Labour, Health, ICT4D, Poverty Alleviations and Gender Relationships.

His expertises cover Training, Research, Study, Documentation, Policy Analysis, Planning and Management of Strategic Communication and Publication on various issues of development especially on strengthening of governance institutions. Also, monitoring and participatory evaluation of development programs and networking and advocacy with various stakeholders at different levels.

He has worked with national and international organisations of repute such as Sheffield Hallam University, UK; Azim Premji Foundation, India; Aga Khan Education Service, India, Sahbhagi Shikshan Kendra/PRIA, India, V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, India and PRAYAS – Juvenile Aid Centre, India besides providing consultancy to Oxford University, UK. He has published and disseminated widely and is member to various national and international professional bodies.